What you need to know

All workers have a right to work in places where risks to their health and safety are properly controlled. Health and safety is about preventing people getting hurt at work or becoming ill through work. Your employer is responsible for health and safety, but workers must play a part.

What employers must do

1. Assess and control the risks to health and safety.
2. Provide information, instruction, and training.
3. Establish safe systems of work.
4. Provide health and safety representatives and committees.
5. Provide health and safety training for all workers.

What workers must do

1. Follow the rules and instructions.
2. Report any hazards or risks.
3. Report any accidents or incidents.
4. Report any near misses.
5. Report any changes in the way you work.

If there's a problem

1. Tell your supervisor or manager.
2. Tell the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) if you are a worker.
3. Tell the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) if you are a manager.
4. Tell the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) if you are a self-employed person.
5. Tell the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) if you are a director or partner.

For advice

Health and Safety Law

What you need to know

All workers have a right to work in places where risks to their health and safety are properly controlled. Health and safety is about preventing people getting hurt at work or becoming ill through work. Your employer is responsible for health and safety, but workers must play a part.

What employers must do

1. Establish a safe and sound system of work to prevent accidents and injury.
2. If you know where the risks are, you must take steps to prevent them.
3. Provide information, instruction, training and supervision to your workers.
4. Carry out the health and safety duties of your workers.
5. Provide your workers with the necessary equipment and facilities to do their work safely.

What workers must do

6. Follow the rules, instructions, training and supervision given to you.
7. Report any dangerous situations to your employer.
8. Do not use equipment or machinery if you are not trained to use it.
9. Do not interfere with or misuse any equipment or machinery.
10. Work together with your employer to improve health and safety.

If there's a problem

1. Tell your employer or supervisor if you are concerned about health and safety.
